

DOWNTOWN OCALA HISTORIC WALKING TOUR

ANTI-MONOPOLY DRUG STORE

36 S MAGNOLIA AVE, OCALA, FL 34471

Anti-Monopoly Drug Store was established in 1886 by Will Koehnie. It was sold to H.C. Groves in November 1890. It was a "staple of Downtown Ocala" for almost 90 years.

The tales are told that many drug stores were used as fronts for speakeasies during the 1920's. The current Anti-Monopoly Drug Store was established on the same site as the original in that memory.
